

PUBLIC VIEWING NIGHTS

Sonoma State University Observatory

Fall - Winter 2008

- | | | |
|--------|--------------|---|
| Aug 29 | 9:00 - 11:00 | Jupiter, Triyd Nebula, Little Gem Nebula |
| Sep 26 | 8:00 - 10:00 | Jupiter, the Lagoon Nebula and the Eagle Nebula |
| Oct 24 | 8:00 - 10:00 | Andromeda Galaxy and friends |
| Dec 5 | 7:00 - 9:00 | The Moon and the Pinwheel Galaxy |
| Feb 13 | 7:00 - 9:00 | Venus and the Pleiades, a Valentine treat! |
-

Follow the signs from the freeway to the campus. The Observatory is located inside the stadium area at the SE corner of the campus (East Cotati Avenue and Petaluma Hill Road, 2 miles east of U.S. 101 at Cotati).

Call before coming if it appears likely that clouds may force cancellation.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS AND ASTRONOMY

Sonoma State University
1801 East Cotati Avenue
Rohnert Park, CA 94928-3609

(707) 664 - 2267

Please consult the Observatory web pages for the most current information about access to the Observatory during campus construction projects.

<http://www.phys-astro.sonoma.edu/observatory/pvn.html>

